

Summer Fencing Camp at Brown University

Hosted by Team Tass

First Week: July 18, 2010 - July 23, 2010
July 24, 2010 excursion to Newport, RI
Second Week: July 25, 2010 - July 30, 2010
Day Camp participants are welcome

Campers may participate in one or both sessions

World Class Professional Coaching Staff
Accommodation and Meal Service at the University is Included
Day Campers may purchase a lunch package

Both sessions are tailored to first assess each individual's ability, and will increase in intensity based on skill level, and the ability to assimilate the information. The daily activities include lessons in fencing theory, tactical/technical drills, group and private lessons, also competitive and team events.

Age groups begin at 10 – 13, 14 – 17, 18 and over. Age groups are established for rooming purposes only and will not reflect on training objectives.
